Planning Commission

With regards to the Burkhart Refractories the Planning Commission is recommending waiver of Land and Development. The board asked for buffering coverage on the west side of the property, a street light at the entrance, tractor trailer turn around space and possibly a sidewalk. Carta Engineering will be making changes to the plan and resubmitting for final approval at the next meeting. The board did also ask about the impervious coverage of 55,000 sq feet vs the 24,000 and carta did explain what was found after the snow melted. The size of the building did also reduce.

The Planning Commission board is also recommending the Storm water management plan be conditionally approved with the conditions noted is SESI review letter dated March 4, 2025.
